How to complain

If you have a complaint about any part of the service you have received from us, you can do one of the following:

1. Call our Patient Service Team on 01277 674 889
2. Email our Patient Service Team on admin@uk.scan.com
3. Write to us at 19 The Department Store Studios, Bellefields Road, London, England, SW9 9UH or via the attached form.

Complaints are managed initially by the designated Complaints Handler. We will attempt to resolve your complaint as soon as possible after receiving it.

We take every complaint seriously and endeavour to be transparent in our processes. We will also respect your confidentiality and treat every complaint impartially.

Our Full Complaints Procedure is as follows:

- At Scan.com, we operate a two stage complaints process.
- Before entering into this complaints procedure, we must first receive notification of the complaint from the patient, either by:
 - Email: admin@uk.scan.com
 - Phone: 01277 674 889
 - Post: 19 The Department Store Studios, Bellefields Road, London, England, SW9 9UH
 - Or via the attached form.

Stage One of the complaints process:

- The complaint must be handled by the dedicated Complaints Handler in the first instance.
- Upon receipt of the complaint, the Complaints Handler will consider the complaint and respond within 10 working days. They will either:
 - Consider the complaint to be valid and investigate it fully.
 - Consider the complaint invalid and dismiss the complaint by informing the patient within the aforementioned time period.
- When we acknowledge receipt of your complaint we will also provide the details of your Complaints Handler.
- If Scan.com requires further evidence from the Patient, the Complaints Handler will contact you as soon as reasonably possible. If the Patient is is for any reason unable to respond to Scan.com's request, Scan.com will use all reasonable efforts to proceed with the complaints procedure.

- We aim to resolve Stage One complaints within 15 working days, however in some cases, particularly if the Patient's complaint is of a complex nature, that may not be possible. If this is not possible, the Patient will be informed of the delay and the reasons for it.
- At the conclusion of the Stage One complaints procedure, regardless of the outcome, Scan.com will provide the Patient with full details of Scan.com's investigation, our conclusions from that investigation, and any action taken as a result. The Patient will also be reminded of their right to appeal the decision and take the complaint to the Stage Two complaints procedure, by way of an appeal.

Stage Two of the complaints procedure:

- If the Patient is not satisfied with the resolution of your complaint at Stage One, they may appeal the decision within 15 working days and the complaint escalates to Stage Two. Appeals are handled by members of Scan.com's Management team.
- Receipt of Appeals will be acknowledged in writing, within 15 working days. The Patient must quote their Complaint Reference when sending their appeal.
- We aim to resolve Stage Two complaints within 15 working days, however in some cases, particularly if the Patient's complaint is of a complex nature, that may not be possible. If this is not possible, the Patient will be informed of the delay and the reasons for it.
- At the conclusion of the Stage Two complaints procedure, regardless of the outcome, Scan.com will provide the Patient with full details of Scan.com's investigation, our conclusions from that investigation, and any action taken as a result. The Patient will also be reminded of their right to seek External Resolution if they are not satisfied with the outcome of the Stage Two Complaint.

External resolution

If you remain dissatisfied, you may ask for external adjudication of your complaint.

You can refer the matter to the Independent Sector Complaints Adjudication Service (ISCAS).

A request for external adjudication should be made within six months of receiving the final response.
